

Week 4:

The long "i" sound is made when there is a "y" by itself used as a vowel, when a "y" is used as a vowel with a silent "e", when the letters "ia" come together, and also when there is a silent "e" at the end of a word that has "i" as its other vowel.

Copy the words that follow these rules:

try	_____	pry	_____	cry	_____
dye	_____	style	_____	rye	_____
smile	_____	dial	_____	file	_____
pile	_____	pie	_____	dime	_____

Sentences for copywork (copy one each day):

1. I will slide a pile of dimes over to you.

2. You will make me smile if you hand me a slice of pie.

3. I would like a slice of rye bread and some pie.

4. Do not lie your slice of pie by that hive!

5. I do not like to pry, but what made you cry?

exceptions: (In these words, the "i" makes its short sound, and the "e" is silent.)
